3	financial reporting in connection with the operations of the Home Electronics Division of HAL
4	("HAL-HED")
5	3. HAL-HED sold CPT televisions during the period April 1999 to 2005. HAL did
6	not sell CPT televisions prior to April 1999 or after 2005.
7	4. HAL-HED virtually ceased all sales of CPT televisions by the end of 2003. In
8	2004 and 2005, HAL-HED's CPT television sales activities were limited to sales of nominal
9	quantities of obsolete unsold on-hand inventory of CPT televisions remaining from prior years
10	(2004: 50 units; 2005: 6 units).
11	5. I am informed and believe that HAL-HED sold CPT televisions to customers in
12	the United States, Mexico, and perhaps other Latin American countries.
13	6. HAL-HED functioned only as a sales division of HAL. HAL-HED never

30(b)(6) DEPOSITION OF STUDIO SPECTRUM, INC. -

12:26	1	Q Who paid for shipping for the CRT products that
	2	you purchased from Panasonic?
	3	A We would pay shipping from the warehouse unless
	4	we achieved a certain volume level, and then they would
12:27	5	pay; one of the incentives of ordering more of the
	6	product.
	7	Q And was that the case for all of the CRT
	8	product suppliers you purchased from or did it vary?
	9	A I think all of them had the similar program.
12:27	10	(Studio Spectrum Exhibit 4 was marked for
	11	identification.)
	12	(Document handed to counsel and the deponent.)
	13	MR. CUNNINGHAM: 1850?
	14	THE REPORTER: Yes.
12:28	15	Q BY MR. CUNNINGHAM: Mr. Buckowski, you've been
	16	handed what's been marked as Exhibit 1850. These are a
	17	series of documents produced by Studio Spectrum in this
	18	case. They have the Bates Nos. SS-1 through 13.
	19	Take a moment to look at this, and when you're
12:28	20	ready, you can tell me if these are, indeed, invoices
	21	produced by Studio Spectrum.
	22	A (Reviewing document.)
	23	Yes, these are the invoices from Studio
	24	Spectrum or from our offices from Panasonic.
12:29	25	Q So let's look at the first page, SS-1. Do you

12:29	1	see in the upper left-hand corner in the box, it says
	2	"Remittance Address" and lists Panasonic Broadcast &
	3	Television Systems Company?
	4	A Yes.
12:29	5	Q Is that the Panasonic entity that Studio
	6	Spectrum purchased CRT products from?
	7	A Yes, that's correct.
	8	Q Okay. Do you know what the relationship is
	9	between that entity and Panasonic Corporation?
12:29	10	A No, I don't know the legal definition of it.
	11	Q These invoices, were these sent to you along
	12	with the actual shipment of product?
	13	A No, they were not; they followed.
	14	Q You received it after you received the product?
12:30	15	A Yes.
	16	Q And how were they sent to you?
	17	A In the mail.
	18	Q Were they typically one-page documents?
	19	A They could be as many pages as the shipment was
12:30	20	or as the particular order was. I think that they came
	21	actually as they shipped. There could be a large
	22	purchase order; and whatever they had, they'd ship and
	23	then back-order and fill it from there. Invoice
	24	typically reflected the shipment, what came on a
12:30	25	particular shipment.

12:30	1	Q And do you see in the middle of this document
	2	there's a stamp that says "Posted"?
	3	A Yes.
	4	Q Is that something that Studio Spectrum applied?
12:30	5	A Yes, that would have been Kathy's.
	6	Q And when would she do that, in the process,
	7	when in the process?
	8	A That she posted it to the accounts payable
	9	ledger, if you would, and that probably was done with
12:31	10	the Macola.
	11	Q And the product reflected here is a in the
	12	description, it says it's a 13-inch color video monitor
	13	receiver.
	14	A Uh-huh.
12:31	15	Q Correct?
	16	A Yes.
	17	Q So is that a is that a television?
	18	A That's a television. But it's a television
	19	designed for the industrial marketplace, so that meant
12:31	20	it had a gray case as opposed to a wooden case.
	21	Q Any other differences between this product and
	22	what you would think of as a typical television?
	23	A Yep. It would have a grounded three-prong plug
	24	as opposed to just the simple two-blade AC plug, and the
12:32	25	video inputs would typically have a professional B and C

connector rather than the consumer RCA. Also, typically 1 12:32 2 it had a longer warranty; if I recall, it was a one-year 3 parts and labor, and the consumer was 90 days. 4 were among the distinguishing differences between consumer and industrial. 12:32 5 6 The warranty you reference there is the O 7 warranty from the manufacturer? 8 Yes, correct. Α 9 Do you see on the right-hand side in the box 0 12:32 10 that says "Shipping Terms"? 11 Α Yes. It says "Prepaid and add"? 12 0 13 Α Yes. 14 Do you know what that means? 0 12:32 15 I can see at the bottom that they're adding Α 16 freight into that, so in addition to $305 cost of that, 17 they're adding $5.10 for the freight. 18 Q I see. So you're looking down at the bottom of 19 the document. 12:32 20 Α Yes. So that would have meant that they're 21 prepaying the freight and they're adding the freight cost to our invoice. 22 23 So if there's a charge at the bottom of these 0 24 documents under Shipping Charges, does that mean that 12:33 25 Studio Spectrum is paying for shipping?

Case 4:07-cv-05944-JST Document 3820-3 Filed 04/17/15 Page 21 of 41

12:33	1	A Yes, that's correct.
	2	Q Can you turn to the next page, please, Page 2.
	3	A Okay.
	4	Q And looking at the last line item here on the
12:33	5	invoice is a 13-inch high-grade monitor?
	6	A Yes.
	7	Q Do you know if that's a black-and-white
	8	monitor?
	9	A That would have been a color monitor.
12:33	10	Q How can you tell?
	11	A I recognize the part number, one of my
	12	children.
	13	Q But there's nothing in the description there
	14	that indicates it's color; right?
12:33	15	A No, just my familiarity with the model number.
	16	Q Can you turn to the next page, please, Page 3?
	17	A Yes.
	18	Q And you see in the Description fields here, the
	19	product is a 13-inch color video monitor; correct?
12:34	20	A Yes.
	21	Q And it says "For Olympics"?
	22	A Uh-huh. Yes.
	23	Q What does that mean?
	24	A Panasonic was the supplier of video equipment
12:34	25	for the Los Angeles Olympics in that year, and they had a special category of -- they had given a lot of the 1 12:34 2 monitors for use at the Olympics. And after they were 3 finished, we were able to buy these at a reduced price. These were used monitors, if you would, but very 4 high-quality ones. This would have been an example, I 12:34 5 6 think, of a special pricing. Other than this Olympics example, can you think 0 8 of any other examples where you purchased CRT products 9 and got pricing reduced from the list price or from -right, from the list price? 12:35 10 11 Α I think this was the only time. 12 Can you turn to Page 8, please. 0 13 Α (Witness complies.) 14 Page 8 is an invoice again for a 13-inch 0 12:35 15 monitor. 16 Do you know whether that's a black-and-white or 17 color monitor? That's a color. CT is color television. 18 Α 19 O Okay. You can put that aside. 12:36 20 (Studio Spectrum Exhibit 5 was marked for identification.) 21 (Document handed to counsel and the deponent.) 22 23 BY MR. CUNNINGHAM: You've been handed what's 0 24 been marked as Exhibit 1851. It's a document produced 12:36 25 by Studio Spectrum, has the Bates numbers Studio

130
